

Tomorrow sees Bryce O'Garey (Pup) play his 50th club game for Glenorchy. Bryce made his senior debut in 2006 and was a member of both our 2007 and 2008 Premiership teams. Congratulations on this achievement and we look forward to seeing you run around in the Glenorchy colours for sometime yet.

Tomorrow's game is a huge challenge. The Northern Bombers have had a good start to the season with big wins over Burnie, Launceston and South Launceston.

Well done last weekend to Brayden Webb and Lynden Carlton who represented the Tassie Mariners against the new Gold Coast team.
