Aaron Cornelius

Justin Wood

Great to see former Glenorchy Premiership player – Aaron Cornelius kick 6 goals last weekend for the Lions reserves team last weekend. ‘Corno’ has had a solid season and will need to continue kicking a heap of goals to break into that Brisbane forward line of Brendan Fevola and Jonathon Brown.

Don’t think you’re seeing things this Sunday when you see Justin Wood running around in our Reserves this Sunday. Justin is back in town for 5 weeks and has arranged for a temporary transfer to play with Glenorchy whilst home. Justin these days is living in Western Australia and coaching an amateur club over there.

“Woody” recently became a father and would love nothing better than to play a Senior game with the Black and White. Justin is a former Glenorchy junior who represented the Tassie Mariners before getting drafted to Geelong in the 1997 Draft. The closest he ever came to playing a Senior game was when he was named an emergency for the Preliminary Final against Clarence that year. Justin played 7 Senior games with Geelong and also spent some time on the Western Bulldogs list.
